DETAILED ACTION

Reasons for Allowability

1. The examiner has conducted a search of the prior art and has found other references reading on the physical structure of the gaming device, namely U.S. patent 6,568,683 B1, and copending applications 10/031,766, 10/031,942, and 10/497,428, all pertaining to the applicant. The examiner, has not, however, found any references that read on the game the gaming device is programmed to play, specifically, a game in which: points that are illuminated in the current player's color and are one point away from the pressed point on a line of the grid or a 45-degree diagonal line of the grid become illuminated in the other player's color, and the pressed point and all the points that are unilluminated or are illuminated in the other player's color and are one or two points away from the pressed point on a line of the grid or a 45-degree diagonal line become illuminated in the current player's color.
